

---

Daniela Stefanescu, Associate Professor. Ph.D. in Management, currently Vice-Rector of the University responsible with the relationships with labour market, is course leader of the following courses: Research Methodology, Design Thinking and Business Models, Statistics for Business. She has more than 20 years of teaching experience in private and public sector, and also in adult education. She elaborated more than 10 textbooks over the years for the courses sustained for the bachelor, master programs and also for long-distance programs. She has over 30 scientific articles, and she was involved in more than 10 national and international projects, including ERASMUS+ projects in recent years, on education and research, as coordinator, expert, trainer or member.

---

---

Mihaela Kardos, Associate Professor, currently Head of Economic Science Department, is specialised in International Economic Relations (PhD), European Integration and Communication and Public Relations (Master degrees) and took part in different training programs on innovative educational student – centred methods. She has 15 years of teaching experience in university and is course leader for: Change Management, Strategic Management, Project Management and International Relations and published books and scientific articles relevant in her interest areas. She has taken part in many European and national projects of education and research focusing on developing students' knowledge and abilities.

---

---

Lia Codrina Contiu has a degree in English, another one in Management. She has PhD degree in Management, and another one in Theatre and performing arts. She is an Assistant Professor and the course leader of: Business Communication, Management of Communication, Negotiation and Conflicts, Strategies and Policies of Human Resources. She has published books and scientific articles on teaching methods, communication, entrepreneurial education and HR management. She has coordinated at UMFST level ERASMUS+ projects. She was involved in the elaboration of the books as teaching aids developed within a Lifelong learning project. She carried out many studies and researches on education methods, entrepreneurship education and communication and participated in project management training.

---